Become a Host Family for a medical student on

Become a Host Family and you

- Gain a new son or daughter for a true life-changing experience. You can form bonds for your family that will last a lifetime.
- Families develop new ways of seeing their own family, community, and culture when they look at it differently through their student's eyes.
- Expanding your family's horizons means experiencing something new through sharing meals, laughter, and stories.
- There's no better reward for your efforts than watching a young person grow, develop, and succeed in life.
- Hosting a medical student will lead your family into new layers of empathy and understanding.
- See "your" world with fresh eyes as you share experiences and learn from someone with a different background.
- Invite a new perspective into your life and community to share in your schools, on your teams, and sit at your tables.
- Enjoy life with someone who is eager to see, participate, and observe in new activities and adventures.
- Understand different ways to approach life that you haven't thought of before.
- Walk away from this experience with a deeper appreciation for the world around you.
